

Hiroshi Ikeda Sensei

SEMINAR

October, 21-23, 2005

One of the finest Aikido instructors teaching today, Ikeda Sensei is in such demand that we are not sure how he manages seminar schedules, a family, business, and his dojo in Boulder, CO. We are all indebted to his consideration and willingness in agreeing to visit Shindai Dojo again this year. We are honored to be able to host him here in Orlando. We urge all serious aikidoka to participate in the exemplary instruction and legendary good nature of Ikeda Sensei !

Hiroshi Ikeda is the founder and chief instructor of Boulder Aikikai. He currently holds the rank of 7th dan through Mitsugi Saotome Shihan and the Aikido World Federation (Honbu Dojo). Ikeda Sensei began his study of aikido in 1968, as a college student at Kokugakuin University in Tokyo. In 1978, he followed Saotome Sensei to Sarasota, Florida. In 1980, he moved to Boulder to establish Boulder Aikikai, an associate of Saotome Sensei's Aikido Schools of Ueshiba. Ikeda Sensei lives with his family in Boulder, where he teaches at Boulder Aikikai and manages the operations of Bu Jin Design. He also travels extensively as a guest instructor, conducting aikido seminars at dojo around the country and abroad.
